FATHER JOHN CHADWICK UPDATE

Dear Brothers and Sisters, I am so sorry to be away from you at present. I just wanted to say thank you for your prayers. I actually feel them!

You will have gathered that I am not well at the moment. I write awaiting biopsies in relation to a number of tumours located in four sites in my neck/head that were discovered just over a week ago. Hopefully not cancer. In any event, it now seems likely that I will face surgery, in the hope further deterioration may be halted. You will be kept posted, if not by me personally. My mobile phone/email etc is being 'looked after' for the moment, just to make you aware. My sisters, and colleagues, are taking it in turns to stay with me during this period. So I'm being utterly spoiled, truth be told.

A person of faith, I am re-learning, is one who first learns to receive. God's Grace always precedes any decision we think we make to receive it, in order to follow the Lord. The current experience is taking me back to basics, rather dramatically, reminding me how to receive again. Thus, I am grateful, so grateful, to you all for your prayers, good wishes and love. Until we meet again soon, please God, take care.

God bless. Fr John C

If you would like to send Father John a card or message please drop them into the office and I will make sure they are delivered to him.

THE SACRISTY

Is a place of prayer and contemplation and should be an oasis of calm, before and after Mass. The Priest and Servers need time and space in order to prepare themselves for The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Please respect this and refrain from visiting the Sacristy in the last 15 mins before Mass. Unless there is an emergency, of course

THE CHURCH—BEFORE MASS

Many have asked me that we try and keep our voices down before Mass so that we can all offer our prayers to God in relative peace before Mass begins. We are a beautiful family of faith at Sacred Heart, therefore very important we chat and catch up. But if we can try and leave this until after Mass it would be much appreciated. Many thanks. Fr J
